

Episode 7: GoT theories (Part 1)

J – Jennifer

C – Camila

J – Good evening, Camila!

C – Hi Jennifer! Good evening. How are you?

J – I'm fine, thank you. And what about you?

C – I'm pretty good. Everything great here.

J – Good. And how is Rio?

C – Very, very hot.

J – It's just like in the song? Rio 40 degrees?

C – Maybe 50!? Maybe trying to change it but it's fine.

J – Maybe it's time....

C – We're not used to... Yeah... Everyone thinks we are used to it but you never get used to living in this kind of weather. Because it's very humid. So...

J – Yeah...

C – It's just like...

J – That makes it worse, right? It's just like in Florida...

C – Yeah...

J – I mean, in the ... I really can feel the difference. The days that it's really not that humid even though it's 35 degrees, it's OK. Not good, but it's OK. But sometimes, it's just 32 degrees but it's very humid and then you feel like you cannot breathe.

C – Yeah, it's exactly that.

J – It's hard. (...) So, how's the week so far?

C – Pretty good. Been reading some stuff about Game of Thrones ...

J – Go figure!

C – Sadly it will just ... I think it will start when? Like...

J – July...

C – September now. July, yeah...

J – Last thing I read, is July. But no date yet.

C – Yes, someone told me September. I went crazy! Like, WHAT?? Are you kidding me?

J – Is like a year after it finished. Yes, is way too long.

C – Yeah. They can't do that to us.

J – No... It should be seen as torture, really. Because it is, yeah...

C – Yeah, I know...

J – Especially when you start hearing and seeing all the spoilers for the next season, then it's even worse!

C – Yeah! People make up the craziest theories and because it's Game of Thrones you expect that to happen...

J – Everything and anything is possible, yes.

C – Yeah! That's the craziest part. 'Cause like anything can happen. Anything at all.

J – And that's the cool part and also the scary part of the whole series because, really, yeah, I mean, no one is safe and that's why I'm always so afraid for Tyrion. Because I like him so much. And I know just how much George Martin likes killing the characters we love the most, so... yeah...

C – I know! I know... He killed everyone I loved and now I really like Tyrion, too. Like he's my favorite and Daenerys, of course but... I really hope they don't die!

J – Me too! But when was it... 2 days ago, I think, I saw a picture in one of those Facebook groups and it was such a funny picture! You had the whole... not really the whole cast, but a big part of the cast from Game of Thrones and George Martin. And he was looking at Sam, well the guy who plays Sam and laughing in a way that people said: mh, I guess we know who's gonna die next.

C – No! Really?

J – Yeah, I don't know... I hope not!

C – I hope not, because like now, Sam is so important to everything! Because he just got to the Citadel and ... he... his goal is to find out how to kill the White Walkers.

J – How to save humanity...

C – This is like, yeah! So, it's like, mingle here, guys! Please don't kill me!

J – Yeh, it would be nice to keep him alive but, yeah... I guess well... who knows what's... what is going on inside...

C – Maybe they can like focus on different characters, maybe like ... the bad ones, you know? Cersei, she deserves to die! She's like...

J – She will not be missed.

C – ... a 100% ... No! No, not at all! But I don't think that they will kill her. She's too crazy for that, like she gives a little bit of spice to the story.

J – Yeah, it's...

C – Like, what she's doing next. O my god, OK. She just like burned down half of ... half of the city, half of Kings Landing now is like gone and...

J – The Mad King would be so proud!

C – Yeah! He would be like: Oh, you finished what I started.

J – Exactly!

C – So good! Good girl!

J – Exactly! And like I told you already before, this is one of the things that, I mean... but this is just my personal crazy theory that Jamie and Cersei are actually the kids from the Mad King. I'm... but that's just my personal crazy theory that she has the blood of the dragon.

C – Yeah, but this would be very crazy!

J – I know...

C – Like really crazy. Because there is already the Tyrion theory.

J – Exactly.

C – So, it's like all 3 or?

J – No.

C – Targaryen, you know. So...

J – No, in my ...

C – Just 2...

J – In my world, only the twins, yes.

C – Just the 2. Ok...

ON THE LAST EPISODE

www.onthelastepisode.com

J – Yes, only the twins would be... and Tyrion... because think... it would be ... how can I say... it would be really surprising because the father, Tywin, he always said that Tyrion was not his son and then, all of a sudden...

C – Oh yeah...

J – and well... and the twins, they were like, oh my god, specially Jamie, right. He was like the golden boy and then imagine all of a sudden, we find out: actually Tyrion was his heir and the twins were not.

C – That would be really good, actually. That would be...

J – It would be something?

C - ... a in you face moment.

J – Exactly! Like, HUGH? Of course he's dead. He isn't there to ... to regret but still. I mean, for us ... for me would be such a moment, like OMG!

C – Yeah, it's crazy but it would be great. Really, yeah.

J – Yeah. But like I told you, that's just my personal crazy theory. So... but OK. So, talking about crazy theories and some theories not so crazy about Game of Thrones... We already started with the Tyrion theory. So, that Tyrion is actually a Targaryen and not a Lannister. So, what do you think about this theory?

C – Like always, it's Game of Thrones. Everything is possible, but... I... personally, I don't think he is a Targaryen.

J – Really?

C – There ... really... there are a lot of proof... like maybe he is because of the 3 dragons and you could have 3 Targaryens to ride them... but I don't know. I have... I have a couple of doubts, you know. I think, especially because of this ... Tywin thing of ... oh I don't want... not wanting him to be his son, maybe the big surprise is that he is! You know. Not such a big surprise as the twins being Targaryens but...

J – Yeah, I mean... I guess yeah, it could be. And also depending on how things go he would actually be the one son that he could be really proud of.

C – Yeah and that would be really...

J – Right now he is the hand of the queen.

C – Yeah, and THE queen. Like the actual queen that deserves like the Iron Throne and is going for it. Is like, it's a huge moment in Game of Thrones. One of the best now and you see ... Khaleesi arriving to Kings Landing, that would be... that would be a scene like ... unforgettable really.

www.onthelastepisode.com

J – I think so. But then we have all those questions. How will she arrive. Because right now she is going to Dragonstone. Because that's her family's seat. But the how will she decide when to really go and try and take Kings Landing . I... I'm pretty sure she will try and maybe clo... maybe close a deal with Cersei and say: Look, I will not kill you if you just hand it over. And of course, Cersei will say...

C – Of course, yeah... Yeah, Hell no!

J – Exactly! She... she will never just hand it over like that. She will fight for it! Specially now.

C – Yeah, she did everything to be the queen. She, now... now it's a moment she doesn't have anything to lose. She already lost her 3 kids, they were her life. She just doesn't care... she doesn't have anything. That's why she ha ... power is what she... has now

J – Is what she has left.

C – Yeah. That's it.

J – Because even Jamie. I mean, she loves Jamie and they have this very close relationship but still, even with him it's not the same anymore. So, I guess you are right. I mean, power is all she has left.

C – No, yeah and even ... even though they have this relationship, as you said, after that last moment, when she was ... when... it was... who was ... the ... after she killed everyone and she was nominated the queen

J – She was like crowning herself, right.

C – Yeah. When she, yeah. When she was crowning herself as queen. Kind of, what happened.

J – Like Napoleon, right? I thought of Napoleon. Like, yeah... Just let me do it! Yeah.

C – Yeah, I'll just do it better. And Jamie arrived at that moment and when he saw her, you could see on his look, like you could see on his face that it wasn't the same anymore. He didn't think of her the same he used to. So, it's a big change!

J – It is. Just before we go into this theory that starts there, just tell me... OK, so you don't think Tyrion is actually a Targaryen. Right? But do you think that... that there is a third Targaryen? Or no? Because we already know we have Daenerys and we have Jon, who is a bastard Targaryen but he is a Targaryen.

C – Yeah. Everything leads to having a third Targaryen. Like, there are a lot theories that... bring another Targaryen into the game. If it's Tyrion or if it's Meera or if it's someone that survived...

J – But then again...

C – I don't know..

ON THE LAST EPISODE

www.onthelastepisode.com

J – ... all those theories only exist because we have 3 dragons. If we then go to that crazy theory that one of the dragons will become some sort of 'White dragon', Ice dragon then I guess 2 Targaryens...

C – You only need 2

J – Exactly, would be enough.

C – Yeah, 2 dragons for 2 Targaryens. That would be like the perfect count. And, having the white walker dragon, whatever will be the name, that would be pretty cool!

J – Yes, I mean, from some spoilers I saw and read this could really happen. And I saw even yesterday some posters. But I really think those were fan-made posters. But they were amazing!

C – Oh, yeah, I've seen one too. They're all over the internet but I think they are all fan-made.

J – I don't know. But some of them are really good.

C – Yeah, no but ... the fans of Game of Thrones, they are like a lot geeks and nerds that can like... me, I'm including myself on that, you know. Like, but they are pretty good designers and they are pretty good with Photoshop and all this stuff so... so I think like, they could do it.

J – Yeah, no. That's for sure! There's even one video I saw on YouTube that is supposed to be something like a trailer for season 7 already and I just found out it was fan-made in the end.

C – yeah, I think everything now is fan-made. I don't think HBO or the producers (producers) have released anything yet. Is too early.

J – Yeah, the only video ... we have some very short videos that were released. I know there is one but I could not find it on HBO YouTube channel, but I know HBO released like a very small... 20 or 30 seconds video a few weeks ago. So..

C – From each family?

J – No, no, no. With just a few scenes. Especially from the Stark family but it was only on TV and never got to the internet. So, the only thing I saw was the... how some people actually filmed the spot on the TV, you know. So, the quality is really bad. But they never released it on, to the internet. So, I have no idea, what's going on.

C – Those aren't the ones I saw. I saw... but now I can't remember if I saw it before the ... before season 6 or after season 6. But I think it's for season 7. It was like 3 or 4 videos, like mini clips. It was on the official Facebook Page of Game of Thrones and it showed ... it was like talking about... maybe the future for Daenerys and maybe for the Starks and... it was like 3 or 4. I'm not sure right now. But I... I remember the one from Daenerys. It was like some... the voices around the video were kind of predictions, you know, that she heard through the... through the seasons. So, it was cool but then... again, I'm not sure now if t's fan-made or not. Because the Game of... Game of Thrones fans are like really obsessed... in a good way.

J – Some of them are. Yeah, but some of the really are and they know every single detail and I've been reading a lot about Game of Thrones and I really have to start reading the book about the History of Westeros that I have here. Some very light reading, like 800 pages but... Oh, but amazing! The book is so beautiful it will be a pleasure to read it. But...

C – Yeah, and it's like a big curiosity how Westeros began, because... like I have no idea and I'm very curious about it also.

J – Yeah, I told you already you should read the... A knight of the Seven Kingdoms. It really is great. Because it helps you understand a little bit better a few of the things and how the Mad King actually came to power and things like this. But OK, back to the theories. Otherwise we will talk just Game of Thrones and not work on some of those theories. So, the theory we already started is also that now the things between Cersei and Jamie are not the same anymore ...

C – No, we could see it on his eyes.

J – Exactly and she really became the Mad Queen right now, right?

C – Yeah, no. She is! She is completely mad. She did what the Mad king said he would do, you know. And ...

J – A dream come true, for him.

C – yeah and even though everything always said: the Mad King, the Mad King, now we have a Mad Queen.

J – Exactly.

C – And she ... yeah and she can continue to do what he was doing because she already took the first step and it was not a baby step!

J – Oh no!

C – It was a big boy's step!

J – She is playing in another league right now.

C – Like crazy... yeah

J – She really is. And...

C – Like other level craziness.

J – It is, yes.

C – and we've seen throughout all the seasons Jamie changing. He was like... he wasn't the best person on season 1...

J – I remember us talking... you were saying, oh I hate Jamie!

C – I hate Jamie! I hate him! I want him to die!

J – And I told you, just wait and see...

C – Yeah, but that was the Stark power! Because he changed after he was arrested by the Starks.

J – I don't, really? You think that wa... that was it?

C – No, it wasn't it but started with it.

J – It started yes... He felt the other side...

C – Because that was a game changer for him. Because if he wasn't arrested by the Starks ... if he wasn't caught, he wouldn't have gone through everything he went through. He wouldn't have met Brienne, he wouldn't have lost his hand, so a... a lot of things happened because of this. So...

J – That's right.

C – Yeah, I think ... I really think he ... he changed after that. So...

J – And as he changed, his relationship to Cersei changed as well.

C – Yeah, completely. Yeah. By now, it's like... now I think...

J – They still have the 3 children to bond them even if Joffrey wasn't really like a bonding person...

C – But that's the thing. They had the 3 children. They don't have now. And Cersei killed the last one.

J – Indirectly but yeah.

C – Indirectly but she did.

J – She pushed him into committing suicide, yes.

C – Yeah.

J – Oh yeah. And Myrcella died in front of her father, right? That was quite harsh as well. Because they were just having that moment

C – Yes, were she accepted

J – Exactly

C – I know you are my father but I accept you as you are and the she boom! Dies...

J – Exactly... he didn't even have ... like time to take it in, she was dead. The next moment she was dead. So...

ON THE LAST EPISODE

www.onthelastepisode.com

C – That was sad.

J – It was, yes.

C – ‘Cause now I really like Jamie

J – We don’t want him to suffer anymore, right?

C – Yeah, kinda, no but like... he deserves a little bit of ... like... he has to know what Cer... who Cersei really is. He knows! He is the person that knows her the best but I think even him ... like sometimes he doubts the things she could do...

J – Exactly. But now, how can you doubt, right?

C – You know.... Yeah, there’s no way, like ...

J – So... so now maybe the prophecy will come true in a way or another.

C – Yeah...

Stay tuned for part 2 next week on the next episode.
